BRILLIANT WEDDING

Miss Sophie Rose Meredith Becomes Bride of Fred Grayson Boyce, Jr., of Baltimore.

A brilliant co.npany of distinguished ruests thronged St. James Episcopal burch last evening at 8 o'clock for to marriage of Miss Sophie Rose medith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs aries Vivian Meredith, to Fred Grayson Boyce, Jr., of Baltimore and Clarke county. The wedding is one of the most fashionable and important events of the fall, and many prominent guests from a distance were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. C. Darst, D. D., rector of the church and Bishop-elect of the Diocese of East Carolina, and the altar was massed in squisite white blooms and Cathedral andies. Bay trees, palms and chrysanthemums decorated the chancel and formed an effective background for the assumes of the bride and her attend-

The bride's wedding dress was fashoned quite simply of white satin and real lace, and her long veil of illusion was fastened with orange blossoms.
She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilles of the valley, and entered the church with hor father, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the chancel steps by Mr. Boyce and his brother, Heyward Boyce, who acted as best man. Mrs. Macl. Talbott, of Brookline, Mass., attended her dister as dame of honor. She wore a rench gown of white charineuse and wille, finished with filver trimmings, and carried a big bouquet of pink or t ds. The bridesmalds, who inituded Mrs. Willard P. Sullivan, of Norfolk, Mrs. Erwin Furman, of Brookline, Mass.; Miss Sophie Pitt, of Baitimore, and Miss Kitty Hardy, of Norfolk, were dressed alike in pink charneuse trimmed in ruffles of plaited tuile and capes of fillusion. They caried old-fashioned nosegays of pale dink Killarney roses and lilles of the falley, with shower of lilles and roseouds. The groomsmen were Messrs.

Perkins—Cheatham.

One of the prettlest events of the week was the weedling yesterday afternoon of Miss Mary Elizabeth Cheatham and George Mace Purkins, Jr., of Baltimore. The bride is a daughter of the late Waiter Hill Cheatham and Mrs. Mollie E. Cheatham, and a grand-daughter of the late William Taylor. The ceremony, which took place at 4 o'clock, in the residence of the bride's mother, 2600 Floyd Avenue, was solemnized by Rev. William Lockhart Bell. The drawing-rooms and seception hall were decorated with palms and Southern smilax. An effective arrangement were decorated with palms and Southern smillax. An effective arrangement of palms in the bay window formed an improvised altar upon which were arranged numbers of Cathedral candles. Tall allabaster pedestals and vases filled with white chrysanthemums further decorated the altar, while ropes of smilax formed an aisle for the bridal party. Just before their entrance, Mrs. C. T. Brengle zang "Because," accompanied by Miss Sara Do Hart, who rendered the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" during the service. The bride was handsomely attired in a military going-away costume of king's blue broadcloth, trimmed in fur, with a black velvet picture hat. She
